Guest Speaker

Jan Phillips connects the dots between creativity, spirituality and inspired action. Jan is the author of eight award-winning books and has presented workshops around the world on a one-woman peace pilgrimage. She has performed with Pete Seeger, taught with Jane Goodall, worked with Mother Teresa.

She is a performing artist with 3 CDs of original music and several DVDs that provoke original thinking and prophetic action.

Her book, No Ordinary Time: The Rise of Spiritual Intelligence and Evolutionary Creativity, merited praise from: Diarmuid O'Murchu; Richard Rohr; John Shelby Spong, and Gloria Steinem.

“These times and our own interior voices are calling for a shift from ordinary to extraordinary. Our global mind is undergoing an evolutionary leap and we are feeling its push and pull. We know it is time to step up, to step out and be the force we came here to be. Time to shed our fear and express our potential. Time to remove the bushel that’s been hiding our light and become conscious creators of our lives, our families, our communities.”
